

Rethinking Late Socialism

Socio-Cultural Change and Political Legitimacy in Eastern Europe since the 1960s

Conference at the Institute of History, Sarajevo, 23-25 June 2010

Organisers:

Institute of History, Sarajevo

Research Group 'Socialist Dictatorship as a World of Meaning' of the Centre for Contemporary History, Potsdam and the Institute of Contemporary History, Prague

PROGRAMME

Wednesday, June 23rd

Arrival, Registration

Thursday, June 24th

Venue: Faculty of Political Sciences Sarajevo; Fakultet Polititičkih Nauka Sarajevo, Skenderija 72

9.15-9.30: Welcome and Introduction:

Husnija Kamberović (Sarajevo), Martin Sabrow (Potsdam), Pavel Kolář (Potsdam/Prague)

9.30-11.00: Panel 1

Chair: Pavel Kolář (Potsdam/Prague)

Keynote Lecture: Ulf Brunnbauer (Regensburg): Rethinking Late Socialism

Comments: Michal Kopeček (Prague), Jonathan Larson (Iowa/Prague)

11.00-11.15: Coffee Break

11.15-13.00: Panel 2

Chair: Vera Katz (Sarajevo)

Annina Gagyiova (Prague): Consumerism Culture in Hungary since the late 1960s

Igor Duda (Pula): Yugoslav Socialist Ideology and the Everyday Consumer Practice

13.00-14.45: Lunch

14.45-16.30: Panel 3

Chair: Philipp Ther (Florence)

Nina Vodopivec (Ljubljana): Why Social Memories and Not Post-Socialist Nostalgia? The Case of Textile Workers

Barbara Klich-Kluczevska (Cracow): Everyday Life and Social Identities in the Late People's Poland: The Case of Cracow

Amir Duranović (Sarajevo): Islamic Religious Community after 1968: A New Beginning

16.30-16.45: Coffee Break

16.45-18.30: Panel 4

Chair: Jan C. Behrends (Berlin)

Zarko Trajanovski (Skopje): Lustration Process in the Republic of Macedonia: Re-imagining of the Late Socialism

Agnes Kuciel (Prague): Communist Representations of Gender Order in the Late People's Poland

Tanja Petrović (Ljubljana): Workers in Socialist Yugoslavia as Subjects of Ideology and Politics

Friday, June 25th

9.15-11.00: Panel 5

Chair: Muriel Blaive (Vienna)

Radina Vučetić (Belgrade): "Americanization" of Yugoslav everyday life in the 1960s

Larisa Kurtović (Berkeley/Sarajevo): After normal and absurd: Djed Mraz, Vučko and the struggle for national futures in postwar/postsocialist Bosnia-Herzegovina

Árpád von Klimó (Pittsburgh): Pop Culture and Legitimacy in State Socialism

11.00-11.15: Coffee Break

11.15.-13.00: Panel 6

Chair: Ulf Brunnbauer (Regensburg)

Celia Donert (Potsdam): Defeated Universalism: Human Rights of Women in Late Socialist Czechoslovakia

Iva Lučić (Uppsala): The Pluralism of Nationalisms. Census Policy in Socialist Yugoslavia 1970-71

Sofiya Zahova (Sofia): Nostalgia for the Last Decades of Tito's Yugoslavia in Narratives and Memories of Different Ethnic Groups and Nationalities in Montenegro

13.00-14.45: Lunch

14.45-16.30: Panel 7

Chair: Martin Sabrow (Potsdam)

Peter Ápor (Budapest): Radical Social Criticism to Late Socialist Governance after 1968

Albrecht Wiesener (Potsdam): Lost in Utopia? Socialist Spaces and the Decline of Communist Power in East-Central Europe

Michal Pullmann (Prague): Expert Culture and Late Socialist Utopia: Soviet Union and Czechoslovakia in the 1980s

16.30-16.45: Coffee Break

16.45.-18.30

Round Table: Late Socialism and Beyond

Chair: Claudia Kraft (Erfurt)

Thomas Lindenberger (Vienna), Michal Kopeček (Prague), Călin Morar-Vulcu (Cluj-Napoca), Igor Duda (Pula)

ZENTRUM FÜR ZEITHISTORISCHE
FORSCHUNG POTSDAM
Mitglied der Leibniz-Gemeinschaft

Institut za istoriju Sarajevo

